REFLECTION

The last lines of the Gospel are pretty powerful reminders to us: “Who are my mother and my brothers?... Whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother.” God is a God of constant invitation, One who offers purpose and mercy to all. And we are pretty fickle – even on our good days – in giving preference to those in our “own camp”. It’s beautiful that we work hard to love our own families and friends, but not if it is to the exclusion of others. God is asking us to expand our notion of family, to all those who seek goodness and love. Refugees, those struggling with poverty or addiction, people of different traditions and cultures – these too are God’s family members, and He is asking us to love them as such.

VOLUNTEER APPRECIATION RECEPTION

Throughout the pastoral year (September to June) many parishioners give of their time and energy to the parish community. Without their dedication to the parish and commitment to their ministry, committee, or parish organization, our parish would not be the wonderful place of worship and community it is. As the pastoral year draws to a close, we as a parish want to express our appreciation and gratitude to the many women and men, girls and boys of the parish who have supported our liturgies, hosted our parish community events, and coordinated our outreach to those in need. On behalf of the Pastoral Council, I invite our many volunteers in ministries, committees, and parish groups to a reception in your honour on Sunday, June 24 from 12:00 - 2:00 p.m. in the Parish Hall. All parishioners are welcome to this special event where we will say "Thank you" to those who help us experience the excellence which defines us as a Parish community.

ST. PATRICK YOUTH GROUP

Mara Roach is looking to start up a youth ministry for students aged 12-16 here at St. Patrick Fallowfield. It would be held in the Parish Hall twice a month, on a Friday evening. She is looking for university or college students interested in volunteering to help run the youth ministry. You would be required to run some of the games, crafts, and activities as well as support the bible study. If you are interested, you can reach her at mara.roach4@gmail.com or 613-219-7937.

PASTORAL COUNCIL - NEW MEMBERS

The Pastoral Council, representing the whole parish membership, works with the Pastor to accomplish the goals of the parish’s Five-Year plan. Members of the Pastoral Council are to be at least 18 years of age and in good standing with the Church. The Pastoral Council encourages and supports the ministries and outreach programs of the parish. The Pastoral Council meets monthly between September and June.

Currently, there is a need for three new members of the Pastoral Council. Working together, the Council identifies and prioritizes the pastoral projects and develops ministries/programs to meet the demands of our growing parish. We are seeking men and women who are experiencing a call to leadership and action within the parish to become part of the Pastoral Council. If this is you or you know someone who you think is called to this ministry of service, please contact Fr. Paul Shepherd at the parish office.
